catherine regehr YUKON BEDROOM

local talent

BEST KNOWN FOR: Vancouver-based Regehr's eveningwear, special occasion and luxury separates are full-on fabulous.
CELEB-/SPOTTED: Angelica Huston, a Saudi princess and fellow home-girl Sarah McLachlan are fans.
DECOR LABEL: Catherine Regehr Home Collection
THE 411: Raised in the Yukon, schooled in Paris, Regehr's home collection launched at Maison & Objet in 2008. Currently working with First Nations artisans to create some of the textural, luxury pieces for her decor collection, the designer describes her style sensibility as "the culture of luxury."
THE GOODS: On bed, opposite, from left: Caribou-tufted moose-hide-fringed cushion, $1,995; beaver-fur cushion with suede fringe, from $995; deerskin all-over-fringe cushion, $1,595; Porcupine Loop duvet, from $1,995; natural red fox throw, $10,195. Pictured separately: Fallen Leaf cushion, from $195; Seaweed cushions, from $995.
WHERE TO BUY: Provide Home, Vancouver; Catherine Regehr Studio, Vancouver (by appointment only).

ON THE RUNWAY Autumn leaves seem whipped up from the forest floor to create Catherine Regehr's sculptural silk taffeta scoop-back gown.
